

Blackburn discusses Son

Jessie Blackburn - "Garland was in second grade this year and was always a very good reader and we just recently moved to Arkansas and, um, I've noticed in Garland this year he's gone from being a very good reader to being um, an exceptional reader, in fact he just won a trophy at the end of the school year for being one of the top readers in his whole school."